DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 9-12 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 4-27-07.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for specific "preparing an optical member for use", does not reasonably provide enablement for any type of "preparing" -- such as buying stock materials. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to practice the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

The term "preparing" can encompass anything such that there is no enablement to what such a recitation does and does not encompasses by reading applicant's specification.

Art Unit: 1762

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1, 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the term "preparing" is considered vague and indefinite because the meets and bounds are not identified.

In claims 13-20, these claims are dependant on withdrawn claims. Please re-write these claims as either independent method claims or dependant on method claims only. Only composition limitations within claims rejected of record are examined for the purposes of this office action.

6. Claims 13-20 are rejected as failing to include every limitation of the claim from which they depend as required under 35 U.S.C 112, fourth paragraph. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

The fact that independent and dependant claims are of different statutory classes does not, in itself, render the latter improper.

The test as to whether a claim is a proper dependant claim is that it shall include every limitation of the claim from which it depends (35 USC 112, fourth paragraph), or in other words that it shall not conceivably be infringed by anything which would not also infringe the basic claim. See MPEP 608.01(n).

Art Unit: 1762

Regarding claims 13-20, the claims as currently written do not include every limitation as required for the test described above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. Claims 1-8, 13-20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japenses patent publication JP-2000-347043 (Kagami et al '043).

A method of producing an optical waveguide is disclosed wherein an optical member is prepared and curing a photo-curable resin such that characteristics after the curing is different than before curing (para 0005-0007, 0028).

Regarding the recitation of "leakage light", these would be obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art because Kagami et al teaches emission from the fiber tip (see abstract).

Regarding a third curing step, it would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in art to include such because it is generally known in the art that uncured resins may form on fibers.

Regarding any claim recitation not directly addressed, such as parameters and characteristics claimed, are considered routine experimentation and therefore obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art in the absence of any criticality of results.

Double Patenting

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claim 1-8, 13-20 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-3,6,22 of U.S. Patent No. 6,703,188. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the variations of the claimed subject matter is considered that which would be obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art as routine in absence of criticality of results.
